

SCHOOL OF LANGUAGES, LITERACIES AND TRANSLATION

BASIC CONVERSATIONAL JAPANESE I

Introduction

 This elementary course is for beginners who are interested in learning or mastering the communicative Japanese language. The course focuses on four language skills; namely listening, reading, speaking and writing. Vocabulary and basic grammars are introduced to enable learners to construct simple sentences.

Objective

• This course is to help students acquire the correct Japanese language pronunciation using "Japanese Kana in Romaji". At the same time, it is aimed to provide learners with the basic Japanese language competence to interact in various everyday situations.

Content

• It includes the greetings, daily expressions, numbers and some common nouns, adjectives and verbs. It also covers the language functions such as talking and asking about people (name, age, nationality, occupation etc), making self-introduction and introducing other people, describing objects and people, telling time and expressing everyday life activities. Some common cultural elements and matters related to the Japanese society are also integrated into the course.
